Hello Northlea Families,

WELCOME BACK!

It has been a great, busy, and positive week at Northlea. We look forward to many more in the 2015/2016 school year.

Please read a brief message from Principal Ehrlich - here - with thanks, an important traffic reminder, and a schedule for the newly introduced field use at recess, which is intended to reduce the number of injuries.

The start of the year comes with a number of great events, fun activities, and important reminders:

- Welcome Back BBQ: Join students, parents, and neighbours in celebrating the start of the school year. Many additional volunteers are still needed: for shifts at the slides, to supervise activities, for 7:30pm clean-up, and to barbeque. Please contact Home & School to help out. On the evening, we ask for contributions to the Bake Sale. More info: here.
- Extra-Curricular Activities: check out the great fall lineup filled with fun, educational, and/or athletic activities for lunch-time and after-school, co-ordinated by Monika Scholte, replacing Jacqueline Frazer (thanks to both!). Registration open now: here.
- Cross Country: Superb to see so many kids out there already at 7:45am. Early next week we are planning to go off-school property, so forms are absolutely due on Monday (don't forget the $20). No form = no off-site. All Cross Country info (including rain policy) is on the website: here.

Intermediate students are advised to listen carefully to the announcements, with the Musical and Me to We kicking off this Monday.

We also should note how thrilled we were with two new visitors to Northlea this week: very cute new babies from Mme Leroux and Ms. Afar! We hope they will visit often! And, our best wishes go out to Mme. Larocque, who is due later this month and goes on maternity leave this weekend. We warmly welcome Mme Saliba as the new teacher in room 228.

In closing, we have little news to report about the labour negotiations. We hope they resume soon, so that our wonderful Northlea teachers are able to join us at the Welcome Back Barbeque.

Have a great weekend, everybody!
