Wednesday, October 14, 2015.

Hello Northlea families,

A quick update about some current events and developments.

Firstly, there is more than an hour left to save a life, and donate at the Northlea Blood Donor Clinic!

Also, we were informed today about a valuable parent information meeting: tonight, educator and grief therapist Andrea Warnick discusses common concerns about teenage grief and loss, at Northern Secondary School (851 Mt. Pleasant Rd, 7-9 p.m.).

Today as well, the TDSB issued a letter about a concerning incident that was reported last night in our community. The letter is posted on our website, here, together with a Toronto Police Service news release about this reported abduction attempt.

For tomorrow, we warmly invite you to the first meetings of Northlea School Council, and the Northlea Home & School Association.

Principal Ehrlich and Council members will provide an important update about a Program Area Review (PART) that will propose to make a slight change to the catchment area for Northlea EMS (more information: here).

There will also be an update about the labour situation. In addition, special guest Armi De Francia from Green Communities Canada will provide information about School Travel Planning, Safe Routes to School, and IWALK.

The Home and School & Council meetings start 6:30pm in the School Library. More information, including Agenda, can be found on the website: here.

In closing, the best of luck to our (92!) grade 3-8 runners who
